By Ira Levin

Directed by Neil Moulang

About the Play:

Deathtrap is the most thrilling of thrillers you can imagine, and was the first play I ever saw performed at the Arts Theatre. I am thrilled (no pun intended) to be given the chance to direct this play.

Deathtrap is set in the home of thriller writer Sidney Bruhl. The action centres around the play "Deathtrap", a new thriller by the unknown student Clifford Anderson, which he has sent to Sidney for comment - or has he? Without a success to his credit for some years, Sidney plots with his reluctant wife Myra, about how best to plagiarise "Deathtrap", and when Clifford turns up to discuss the play with the master, events take a sinister turn.

"Deathtrap" (the play within the play) has a plot that is far too good to waste....
