Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike

BY CHRISTOPHER DURANG

Directed by Cheryl Butler

Chekhov is alive and well where adult siblings Vanya and Sonia reside in their old family home, mourning their lost dreams and missed opportunities. When their often-wrong, fortune-telling maid warns of impending dangers, and their movie star sister, Masha, arrives unexpectedly with young, sexy, toy boy, Spike, the family is launched into a rollicking weekend of one-upmanship, exposed nerves, and a lot of broken mugs. With wit and absurdity, Christopher Durang blends Chekhov's famous world-weariness with the modern-day toils and troubles of celebrity, social networking and age.

ARIA

BY DAVID WILLIAMSON

Directed by Susan Turner

A symphony of discord unfolds at Monique's annual family gathering, celebrating her three beloved sons' birthdays. While adoration for her boys knows no bounds, disdain for their wives is palpable. Festivities crescendo and Monique takes the spotlight with a performance of a renowned opera Aria. But beneath the facade of familial harmony, dissonance brews. David Williamson's Aria is a darkly comedic exploration of the intricate dynamics and rivalry inherent within every family.

HAY FEVER

BY NOEL COWARD

Directed by Angela Gibson

The Bliss family are everything a respectable family ought not to be – unconventional, uncensored and unapologetic. When each of the family members invites a guest to their rural retreat, the unassuming visitors face a hectic living melodrama from which there seems to be no escape. Wonderfully witty and deliciously snarky, this classic play is full of secret seductions, misjudged meetings and wicked revelations, promising a thoroughly over-the-top and chaotic comic affair.
